CALL TO WORSHIP *Responsive TAD WYSOR

Leader: Strange One. Fabulous One. Fluid and ever becoming One.

People: Do not allow us to make our ideas of you into an idol.

Leader: You are as close to us as our own breath and yet, your essence transcends all that we can imagine.

People: You are mother, father, and parent. You are sister, brother, and sibling.
You are drag queen, and trans man, and gender-fluid – incapable of limiting your vast expressions of beauty.

Leader: Embodied in us, your creation, we recognize our flesh in all its forms is made holy in You. With thanksgiving, we celebrate your manifestation in all its glorious forms.

People: Blessed are our bodies. Blessed is our love.
Blessed are we when we celebrate that which the world turns away.
Fill our hearts with a pride rooted in resistance to all that seeks to destroy.

Leader: May we delight in the ways you have created us:
diverse, unique, surprising, and beautiful.

People: Thanks be to God!

DISCIPLES' PRAYER *Unison with Microphone muted JENN ZIBBELL

Divine Presence,
Scandalous One,
Versatile God,
You have been called the worst of names,
Tossed aside by the hands of tradition,
Met with violence and neglect by stranger and kin alike.
And still, you do not conform to the expectations of power
Or polite your way into halls of destruction.
You, the ultimate transgressor of norms
That harm or confine,

Bear witness to the glory of Strange.
You, Queer One, reveal the gifts of falling outside the lines.
You, Wild One, break open possibilities –
Within us and around us –
Whispering in our ear,
"See me. Feel me. Desire me." You help us come alive again.
Beauty is your passion.
Love is your motivation.
Courage is your center.
May your spirit be awakened in every space dull with repressed delight,
That we may choose to live into the riches
Of this peculiar life together.
Embrace us, O God,
And lead us in the ways of your love,
So promiscuous,
So deviant,
So free.
Amen.

BENEDICTION Unison JENN ZIBBELL

God is not lingering at a distance. God dwells in the world around us.

God is enfleshed in queer love.

God is made manifest in trans bodies.

God is present in every body that suffers from prejudice, discrimination, or broken relationships.

If you want to experience God, look around, listen, embrace, and care for God's body in the flesh of your neighbor. Go in peace. Amen.

Sunday, August 10: Traverse City New Church Start New Waves UCC Zoom:

NEXT SUNDAY the New Waves worshiping community has been invited to attend our 10:00 am YFC UCC Zoom worship Service. After worship, beginning at 12:00 noon, Pastor Liz will be leading a special Zoom service recognizing Rev. Jody Betten for her numerous contributions and dedicated service as founding pastor. Before accepting a call to YFC UCC, Pastor Liz served as a part of the original New Waves UCC new church plant team. As we listen for the Spirit to speak to our YFC UCC faith community during this season of discernment, all are invited to attend the 12:00 noon Zoom to learn how the values of risk taking, experimentation, innovation and creativity (including a partnership with Habitat for Humanity) are woven throughout Rev. Betten's and New Waves UCC's ministry approach

Beginning Monday, Oct 3 at 7:00 pm Zoom: Weekly gathering for our community of faith to complete the work of "Purpose = Identity + Context + Values" from Susan Beaumont's How to Lead When You Don't Know Where You're Going: Leading in a Liminal Season:

- Thanks to all who completed the Google Survey on day/time availability.
- A majority of folks (11 total) indicated they could be available Monday at 7:00 pm.
- In order to address the concerns raised by almost half the responders about absences due to summer family and travel commitments, these discernment gatherings will begin on Monday, Oct 3
- Please use the more relaxed summertime to allow the ideas in Susan Beaumont's book to percolate while continuing to pray that we may recognize and respond to the ministry and missions God's Spirit is calling YFC UCC to next.

The Coffee Ministry at Trinity Health St Joseph Mercy continues.
During the Omicron (COVID) surge members of our faith community provided local coffee, cups, and single packaged snacks for the night shift at St. Joe Hospital where Dan Kidder-McQuon is the night chaplain.

While COVID has faded (for now), and the hospital has resumed "normal" operations for the most part. What hasn't changed has been the stress level of night staff. Some of this is leftover from the effects of COVID: lack of staff, nation-wide nurse shortage, burnout.

In response to the ongoing night staff stress, Dan has kept the coffee ministry going, which continues to mean a great deal to the night staff.

Local establishments that roast their own coffee, which the staff has enjoyed include:
Hyperion Coffee Co, RoosRoast, Sweetwaters Coffee & Tea, Mighty Good Coffee Roasting Co, Zingermans Coffee Co, TeaHaus, Bridge Community Café, or a favorite coffee of a member of our community.

From Dan: Some angels of our church have helped me keep the coffee ministry going. On a regular basis, I get the best coffee in Michigan dropped off by Marty, plus resupplies of cups. You have no idea how thankful I am, and how thankful the staff are for this blessing. It's spread: A couple staff members (a security sergeant and a nurse) have been donating coffee, as they know about the ministry. I just want the church to know you have been a blessing to hundreds of nurses, techs, doctors, clerks, cleaners, security, and every now and then chaplains and patient families. Holy grounds!

Marty Kleino will gladly see your contribution reach Dan. Contact Marty: 734-262-1419.

VITUAL NATIONAL ONA GATHERING!
We'll gather virtually Aug. 5, 6 and 7 for our first National ONA Gathering since 2019! Don't miss this opportunity to celebrate 50 years of LGBTQ+ advocacy in the United Church of Christ, the historic ordinations of Bill Johnson and Anne Holmes—the first openly gay and openly lesbian candidates called to ordained ministry in the UCC, and to renew our commitment to a future of inclusion and advocacy for all of the God's queer people.

Sunday, September 18 is our Fall Kick-Off Sunday. Hybrid worship (both in-person and on Zoom) resumes.

Sunday, September 25: Our Neighborhood and Community Pet Blessing Ceremony.
Jenn Zibbell, MID, is Team Lead for this special event. Look for more from Jenn as to how you can participate in preparations.

NEW BEGINNINGS*: Welcome *Rev. Dr. Lillian Daniel to the Michigan Conference

One hundred and forty-six churches, six Conference Associations, along with members of Staff and the Board of Directors of the Michigan Conference UCC are excited to welcome Rev. Dr. Lillian Daniel as our new Conference Minister. Our hope is that as she travels about the State of Michigan visiting and attending meetings; the uniqueness and diversity of each church will become apparent of all that we represent. I'm sure there will be many "Lillian Sightings" to report as

Rev. Daniel familiarizes herself with her new surroundings, our churches and the people within them. With new beginnings there will be relationship building which entails sharing new visions as well as keeping and blending some of our past visions. There is excitement and anticipation as we transition into another season in the life of our beloved Conference.

We look forward to the installation of Rev. Dr. Lillian Daniel as our sixth Conference Minister at our Annual Gathering. This will be a historical installation as Rev. Daniel will be the first female to be installed in this position. Please make sure you register for this event which will be held via zoom on October 22, 2022 with the theme titled "Facing Change with Courage" so that you can witness this special event.

Rev. Daniel, may God grant you peace and joy, allowing you to grow in knowledge and faith with this new path in your journey with Christ.

Yours in Christ,

Judith Booker,Board President
Michigan Conference United Church of Christ

Pastor Liz serves as Vice President of the Michigan Conference. We read Rev Daniel's book When Spiritual but Not Religious Is Not Enough , in our book study last fall.

Message from LeAnn Seto: I know some of you have expressed interest in exploring how to respond to the gun violence tearing at our hearts and society. Many of you have formal work engagements Wednesdays at this time and the opportunity will not be possible for you, but I pass this info to you so that you might hold this work in prayer and pass it along to any you know in your communities who may find it galvanizing and healing. Thanks, LeAnn Engage: Exploring Nonviolent Living is a study program for learning, practicing, and experimenting with the power of creative nonviolence to transform our lives and our world. It is a 2005 revised and expanded version of From Violence to Wholeness produced by Pace e Bene (Italian for "peace and all good") Nonviolence Service.

Arun Gandhi, the grandson of Mahatma Gandhi and president of the Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence says, "It is only when the individual becomes peaceful that the world will become peaceful. Engage is the way to transform the self.

Michael Nagler, founder of the Peace and Conflict Studies Program at U.C.-Berkley says, "This book is a toolkit for salvation. Beta-tested in the laboratory of hundreds of workshops, it spans the whole field of necessary knowledge to save the world, from the loftiest reaches of theory to how to use a flipchart. No doubt there will be many more handbooks like it in the years to come, but at present this is the only one I know of, and every community should have one."

Since 1997, twenty thousand people have participated worldwide. It has provided participants with a vision, method, and skills to challenge and transform patterns and policies of violence in their lives and in the larger world, including:

*the residents of a housing project in a Midwestern city in the U.S. who used this process for a year to constructively transform the despair, rage, injustice, and violence they faced in their interpersonal relationships and in the midst of dehumanizing conditions. After this yearlong program, a pattern of suicide and physical violence ended.

*a statewide coalition that used this process for training and strategizing in mounting a long-term campaign to stop state budget cuts.

*communities who have used this process in areas of war and intense social conflict, including hundreds of Colombians who traveled through numerous militarized zones to take part.

Copies of the paperback workbook are easily purchased online. The United Methodist Church located beside the Lansing State Capitol building has generously permitted me and any others to meet there from 10am-noon each Wednesday throughout the summer. To close the study time each week, I plan to stand in front of the Capitol, near the statue of war governor Austin Blair, practicing a peace prayer for 22 minutes in support of those grieving the precious 22 lives needlessly lost from us on May 24, 2022.

May God bless the work of peace in all its forms in this beautiful world today. Amen.

OUR CHURCH'S MISSIONS

The Beacon Center is the newest community social justice of the Ypsilanti First Congregational UCC. As a light to all persons, the Beacon Center's ministry will support the spiritual formation, creative expression, overall thriving and advocacy of at-risk students of all ages, including those affiliated with three primary local institutions of higher learning: Eastern Michigan University, Washtenaw Community College and University of Michigan. In the Spirit of the UCC moto, "That They All Shall Be One", Beacon Center serves as a uniting and unifying umbrella across our congregation serving persons sources through our three other community social justice ministry networks. Those ministries (each detailed below) include WICIR (Washtenaw Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights) serving the immigrant communities, MI-ONA (Michigan Open and Affirming Coalition) serving LGTBQ+ persons, and WeROC (Washtenaw Regional Organizing Coalition) which brings together faith, labor and community organizations to address local issues.

The Beacon Center is committed to advocate for self-determination and education for all people, especially students living in poverty, persons of color experiencing racism, and other de-humanizing circumstances and conditions. Beacon Center's student demographics include persons of color, immigrants, minorities, LGTBQ+ folk, women, those with special needs, the economically disadvantaged, those facing housing insecurity, the financially challenged, and the working poor. For additional information on the Beacon Center, please contact Rev. Liz Larrivee at lizlarrivee@gmail.com

IMMIGRATION MINISTRY – WASHTENAW INTERFAITH COALITION FOR IMMIGRANT RIGHTS (WICIR)

Since 2008, WICIR has been working with, and in support of, immigrants in Washtenaw County facing challenges of many kinds. At our inception the primary need that brought us together was to support people facing enforcement action by ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement); most often detention, deportation, and removal. To date, WICIR has responded to 650 calls. Always in partnership with folks most affected, many actions and services have evolved as identified by our immigrant siblings, while always keeping focused on our original mission:

To provide culturally sensitive and supportive urgent response to those in Washtenaw County in immigration-related crises; impact local governmental policies to empower and protect immigrant community members; and work toward humane national immigration reform.

Our outreach has been significantly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Many in immigrant communities have experienced significant challenges as they struggle to pay rent, provide food for their families and other basic survival needs. To respond, WICIR, in partnership with Mexiquenses in Michigan (from St. Francis of Assisi Parish), has raised and distributed $200,000 relief funds to immigrants and their families. We have a waiting list of those still in need and will continue this effort as funds are available.

For information about what's happening with immigrant rights and Washtenaw Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights, or if you are interested in learning ways to help, please contact Melanie Harner at melharner@gmail.com or through the WICIR website: https://wicir.org/. You can also find a link on the church website.

WASHTENAW REGIONAL ORGANIZING COALITION

First Congregational is a founding institution of the local "organization of organizations" WeROC (Washtenaw Regional Organizing Coalition). In many ways, WeROC is a larger illustration of the values and mission we try to live out at First Congregational. WeROC members are, at our core, focused on intentionally re-weaving the frayed fabric of community at a time when forces are at work every day to keep us fragmented, suspicious of each other, feeling isolated. Especially in this time when so many are being hit by the health and economic crises, WeROC's focus on raising voices of those most affected is more important than ever (See COVID-19 Resources at www.werocmi.org) WeROC's Mission Statement is:

WeROC brings together faith, labor, community organizations, and individuals to build the healthy collective power needed to break down the systems that sustain injustice, racism, and economic inequality.

WeROC is affiliated with the Detroit Metro organization MOSES and the Gamliel National Network. Contact Tad Wysor at tadwysor@gmail.com or 734-883-3225.

This past election year showed us good things can happen when we're working together in the same direction. WeROC is moving rapidly forward to keep momentum going and find ways to continue to be more effective together in making our communities healthier and more vibrant places; improving the lives of everyone in big ways-- especially those who are most vulnerable and whose voice have seldom been heard.

Ruth Duck wrote this text while she was serving as a corporate member of the United Church Board for World Ministries. In it, she wanted to "emphasize humanity's shared partnership with God in caring for one another and the whole creation."

563 We Cannot Own the Sunlit Sky

Ruth C. Duck (b. 1947) was inspired to write this text while she was on the corporate board of the United Church Board for World Ministries from 1975 to 1985. This text was suggested for use during the 1984 One Great Hour of Sharing all-church offering, which supports the board's work throughout the world.

Ruth Duck served as an interim pastor for three churches in Massachusetts from 1985 to 1989, while at the same time studying for her doctor of theology degree at Boston University. In 1989, she moved to Evanston, Illinois, where she has been a seminary professor for nearly a decade.

Robert Lowry (1826–1899) is believed to have written this tune, ENDLESS SONG, since it appeared in his Bright Jewels for the Sunday School, published in New York City in 1869. Lowry served as president of the New Jersey Baptist Sunday School Convention for many years.

Robert Lowry was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and educated at Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He later moved to Crozer Theological Seminary of Bucknell as professor of rhetoric, served as a member of the board of curators, and later became chancellor there.
